Antioch women seeking delegate nomination

As women are becoming more and more involved in politics, Antioch has two residents on the ballot in the March 18 primary election. They are not running for a high office, but something equally important. Sue Gerasch and Marilyn Sterbenz are running on the Democratic and Republican ballots respectively as delegates to the national convention.

Miss Gerasch is supporting President Carter, while Mrs. Sterbenz was a John Connally backer before he withdrew from the race.

Miss Gerasch teaches American literature at Antioch High School and became interested in running for delegate when in October the National Education Assn. (NEA) announced its backing of Carter. "Carter is pro-education," Gerasch said, "and that is one reason why he has my support."

THE ANTIOCH HIGH teacher had the opportunity to meet with the President when 200 Illinois Education Assn. members went to Washington to attend one of Carter's state-wide briefings. "It was a thrill to meet the president, and he and cabinet members participated in feedback sessions to inform us of Carter's stance on issues," Miss Gerasch said.

Miss Gerasch admits until this year she was not all that involved in politics, but decided to declare her support for Carter because of his administration's federal funding of education. She attended an affirmative action meeting in October and was asked to run in the 13th District in November. "They try to get a cross-section of representation in the delegates they ask to run," Miss Gerasch said. "There are people from different parts of the district, different

Dugenske 'red-ribbons' area industrial research

The Industrial Committee of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry met March 5 and decided to work on getting a program concerned with industry for the next general membership meeting to be held in April.

Bill Brook, chairman of the event, has announced that Paul Pavelski will address the Chamber's general membership on the topic of industrial trends. "This is of vital interest to all facets of Antioch businesses," stated Chamber Executive Secretary Dixie Sparks. Mrs. Sparks also added that Pavelski will speak on the subjects of equal employment and Occupational Safety Health Act (OSHA).

ACCORDING TO Mrs. Sparks, Bob Taubitz of Regal China and Bill Brook will be conferring regarding yet a second general membership meeting in June. The committee is hoping to incorporate more industrial information into that meeting also. Mrs. Sparks will be contacting area industries in regard to that program.

A red-ribbon committee has been formed by the Chamber to look into the future of new industry in Antioch. According to Dan Dugenske, who is heading that committee, "We are looking into a research and development commission to broaden our base while strengthening both the retail and industry in this town."

In other Chamber activity, LoAl Clark, chairman of the retail committee, will be contacting area merchants to participate in the Easter Egg promotion. Posters will be distributed soon when an accurate count is obtained on which businesses will be participating in the promotion.

GOP nominations still up for grabs

by LISA WILKIE

The District 4 GOP race for two Lake County board seats is winding down, and in the midst of parties, dinners and rallies for political figures, seven possible candidates will wait for the results of the March 18 wide-open primary election.

Antioch Township Supervisor Jim Fields, is one candidate vying for one of the nominations, and to date is optimistic about his campaign. "I've met with some good response throughout my campaign," Fields stated. He also pointed out that he went from knowing very little about campaigning, to learning how to handle a full campaign schedule. "The Republican committeemen have helped me a great deal," Fields stated.

FOR ALL PRACTICAL purposes it looks as if Fields will get the Antioch vote if "people get out to vote," according to Fields. Grant and Antioch townships have endorsed the other's candidates, Grant's being Donna-Mae Litwiler. What the race comes down to is where the second choice of each voter will be placed.

Incumbent Norm Geary of Grayslake and appointed board member Jerry Beyer of Wauconda are also looking strong in the race. Geary, who would have been a shoo-in had Harry Robin not died, is a 17-year veteran of the county board and contends that his experience is a valid platform for his campaign. "My experience proves that I am capable of the seat," Geary stated.

"I'm also concerned about lowering taxes. This past year taxes were reduced considerably, and that was even with inflation," Geary stated.

BEYER, WHO also has had valuable government experience as mayor and trustee in Wauconda, stated that cutting down on the budget was a main plank in his platform also. "Everyone wants less taxes," Beyer stated.

Contrary to what others have said, Beyer contends that he and Geary are not affiliated. "I was appointed by the board, and he just happened to be sitting on it," Beyer said.

Both Beyer and Geary hold that there is a need to elect someone from their areas. "Both Antioch and Grant townships already have representation on the county board," they agreed.

Both also contend that they have been "froze-out" by committeemen in Grant and Antioch townships. "Committeemen have ignored our literature in that area," commented Beyer.

DONNA MAE LITWILER, although having never held a government office, has been very active in the Republican Woman's Club and held several offices in that group. She currently works part time at the coroner's office.

"I'm concerned with the future of the lakes region," she stated. "There has to be more flood control, and I'm concerned with the preservation of the Chain O' Lakes area," she said.

She maintained that she will be able to treat the job as a full time one and attend committee meetings which she feels are essential in the running of the county government.

Litwiler also stated that she will support the Republican candidate chosen in the primary. "If I am not nominated, I have no qualms about supporting whomever is," she stated.

Fremont Township Clerk Barbara Behm is also seeking the nomination. Mrs. Behm, who has had 15 years experience in government, holds that there is a lack of communication between the county board and the public. "Before decisions are made, board members need to inform the public on what the proposals are," she stated.

She also held that committees needed to be more active. "Each board member gets paid the same amount of money, yet not everyone puts in an equal amount of time," she said.

TWO OTHER CANDIDATES include James (Bob) Fagen and Doug MacGillis, and they are both for limiting the budget.

MacGillis, former Round Lake mayor and 18-year board of education trustee, stated that he has picked up support he wasn't looking for in his campaign.

Upper Grade receives praise from counselor

The Antioch Grade School board of education meeting was the scene of a game of musical chairs as members of the board took turns trying out different types of chairs. The decision came to a chair manufactured by the American Seating Company costing $13.91 per chair. Approximately 1,000 chairs were ordered to be used in the new grade school along with supplementing the supplies at existing schools.

The board also voted to purchase material to supplement the grade school's reading program. Different teachers reviewed the materials to be used in first and second grades. Harcourt Brace Jovanovich Inc. is the company from which the materials will be obtained.

Funds through the Illinois textbook loan program will be used to purchase the $20 per pupil book program.

Other discussion at the board meeting included an appraisal from head high school counselor Ed Kurek which stated that the math program at the upper grade school was having a good effect on students graduating from grade school.

THE UPPER GRADE school has instigated a pre-algebra program which allows students to be placed in higher levels of math at the high school. "There is a filtering effect," stated upper grade principal Bill Herbst.

Right now the program is only dealing with eighth graders and Herbst said that the programs will eventually be instigated in seventh grade.

Also, Kurek gave his support to the upper grade school's retention policy. "This is making the capable kids try a little harder to do a good job," Herbst said.

Still other discussion centered on the Sequoit Creek project. The board members who were present with the five agencies which recently walked the creek, told that the school board should be optimistic with its position on the rehabilitation of the creek.

"The agencies fired questions that the village board was not ready to answer," stated Ed Haley. "The agencies want to see some concrete alternatives before they give the go-ahead for the plan."

INSURANCE INFORMATION

I got out my insurance policy to look up a type of coverage and . . . I can't understand it! Why are policies so difficult to read?

You're right, policies are hard to read but something is being done about this problem. Most companies are issuing policies using simpler language, 40% fewer words, type 25% larger and more white space between the lines to make the policy easier to read. The reason policies are so complicated is they have to be approved by the Department of Insurance for each state in which the policy is to be sold. To comply with all state regulations, an insurance jargon was developed, eliminating the necessity of 50 different policy forms. If you have any questions about your policies check with your agent or your insurance company's Policy Holder Service Department which will re-explain the terms of your policy in layman's language.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Whew! With the March 18 primary getting closer, I can seriously think about going on a diet. I have attended so many fun evenings involving candidates for county board members, states attorneys and the like, that I couldn't begin to say enough for everyone involved. What I can say is this: each party serves delicious food, and being my age, those pounds don't come off very easy.

Anyway, Antioch's favorite son, Jim Fields, looks pretty good in the GOP race for one nomination to fill two empty board seats. Experts have it that he could do quite well next Tuesday...

Lots of good candidates, though. Make sure to vote. Still one chance to see Fields on Wednesday night at Harbor Ridge.

JIM FIELDS

Antioch's Chamber of Commerce and Industry's retail and industrial committees are working hard on various projects. A red-ribbon committee has been formed from the industrial committee to study the possibilities of future industry, while the retail committee is busy planning for its Easter promotion.

The Chamber was lucky enough to get invited to Carpentersville to remark to that city's newly forming group. I heard that they just might hire Dixie away for her knowledge on inducting Chamber members and general running of the ship...Don't lose her, folks.

With post-season basketball play almost at an end, I've got to send out my condolences and congratulations to all the fine coaches I know. Good old DePaul. My dear friend Ray Meyers, I remember him when I attended St. Mary's in South Bend. He sure has grown up to be quite a man, and his team had a super year. Their loss to UCLA makes me wonder if their number one rating throughout the season was really justified, though. That loss sees everyone's second favorite city going without a championship again...oh well, the Cubs are warming up...

Much appreciation goes out to Antioch High's varsity basketball coach, Roger Andrews and varsity wrestling coach, Ted Derousse, for providing fans with excellence in the field of high school sports this year. Heard Roger's going to settle down and play a little golf this spring...wonder if he's any better than Ed Kurek?

Heard that Mayor Michael signed a peace treaty, at least for the evening, the other day. If real life was as easy as all that, there just wouldn't be any problems now, would there. He sure is working hard to get Mr. Fields re-elected. Wonder how Jimmy really feels about all this? All I know is that W.C. Petty sure will be glad to get his leaves out of storage someday...

Lots of up-and-coming events that deserve mentioning. Next weekend should be fun with the Illinois Association of Snowmobilers holding their annual dinner at Illinois Beach Park on the 15th. Over 40 people from the Antioch area are expected to show up for that evening of fun.

Back at the ranch, the Moose will be holding a St. Pat's dinner with all the trimmings at the Moose Lodge in Antioch.

Next Wednesday the 19th, area school children will be attending the Shrine Circus at Medina Temple in Chicago. This annual event is sponsored by the Chain O' Lakes Shrine Club. Joe Titus of Antioch is the trip coordinator, and he says that between 1,000 and 1,100 people make the one-day trip each year. The circus will be in town until March 23. More information can be obtained by phoning 395-2621.

Don't forget to get tickets for the VIP dinner-dance to be held March 22. Tickets are $10 and are available through St. Peter's Church. Dinner will be honoring VIP Lee Ipsen.

Also, get your tickets for the Miss Lakes Region Pageant to be held at Antioch High School on March 29. The girls are busy readying for the contest and tickets can be obtained at various locations throughout town.

Well wishes go out to Frank Walsh, the father of iceless hockey, who is recovering from arm repair.

Also, happy birthday to Walt Shepard who celebrated on the 6th.

Do you remember...when Mrs. Rene Kelly of Loon Lake gave the men bowlers something to think about when she set a record of 277 in a game she bowled at the Antioch Recreation parlor alleys on Feb. 28, 1941?

The previous record at the alley was 276 made by Roman Vos of the Antioch Lumber and Coal Company team in the Antioch Business League on Feb. 6.

Commentary

Trail tough for Fields

Jim Fields, who has done a creditable job in filling some mighty big shoes when he succeeded Lloyd (Red) Murrie as supervisor of Antioch Township, is finding the political going entirely different as a candidate for the Lake County Board.

Seeking one of two Republican nominations in the Tuesday, March 18, primary from District 4, Fields has been undergoing on-the-job training in learning the campaign techniques of winning votes on a regional basis rather than in his home township. District 4 includes Lake Villa, Grant, Avon, Fremont and Wauconda townships along with Antioch.

One of the problems Jim has had to contend with as he moves about the district is that Antioch Township already has a representative to the County Board, Assessor Bud Holz. This fact has been used against Fields.

As we would expect, Antioch Republicans are working hard to help Jim land a nomination, but it has been a tough job getting known among GOP voters throughout the district which has a population of approximately 90,000.

Jim has been making friends for himself and Antioch wherever he goes. Personable and modest, Fields instantly impresses people with his earnestness and dedication. Jim has a bright future in politics and we're with him all the way. Good luck, Jim.

Caution: poster contest

As part of the continuing effort to make students aware of the necessity to take care, a safety essay and poster contest is being sponsored by the Lake County Safety Commission. The poster and essays will be judged by safety commissioners and winners will be announced in May. The first place winners in both the poster and essay contest will receive a $50 saving bond. Should a tie be determined by the safety commission, duplicate prizes will be awarded.

The essay portion is limited to grades fourth through sixth. With entries being 500 words or less. Essay subject should deal with this year's theme: "Caution: Poison can be hazardous to your health."

Poster entries are for grades first through sixth. The topic of the posters should deal with the same theme.

General rules include all posters and essays become the property of the Lake County Safety Commission. All poster entries must be submitted by April 15. More than one entry may be submitted. All posters and essays must have the student's name, age, teacher's name, and school written on back.

Thanks for exciting years

Editor:

I've been watching wrestling for 25 years now. This entails all levels, Olympic, NCAA, Big 10, Small College high school and junior high level. From the exposure on these different levels I've formed an opinion on what I think constitutes an exciting, gambling, shoot from the hip type of wrestler.

Jon Gibson fits all of these. I've watched him since sixth grade develop into one of the finest prep wrestlers in the midwest. Last week, at the state wrestling finals at Champaign, Jon made it to the finals of the 119 pound match. In spite of losing, Jon won the hearts of every fan in the assembly hall. He was winning the match 8-2 and could have played it close and stalled, but not Jon. He only knows one way, all out, the whole match. This is one reason Jon has the state record for pins.

I told him last week, win, lose, or draw, he's been a pleasure to watch these past seven years. In a sport that can sometimes drag on, Jon was always exciting.

After the match I talked with several referees and their wives. One of them mentioned that of all the boys in the state tournament this year, Jon is the one they would personally want for their college team if they were coaching. I guess that says it all, Jon, Thanks again.

Jump Rope-A-Thon For

Heart, endorsed by the Governor's Council on Health and Fitness, is a team event. Students form six member teams and secure pledges for each minute jumped by the team during a maximum three-hour period. Prizes will be awarded to students turning in their contributions. He was a tax collector for Antioch Township for many years, and was also secretary of the fire department for many years. He was a charter life member of the Antioch Rescue Squad.

Mr. Horan was an active legionnaire and was past commander of the Antioch American Legion Post 748. He was a member of the Commanders Club of Lake County. He was press historian for the Illinois American Legion Historical Society. He was a member of the 40 and 8 Legion Club 604 of Waukegan.

He was also a member of the National American Assn. of Retired Persons and was past president of the Antioch AARP chapter.

DENTAL SCHOOL GRADUATION — Mid-term graduate Kirk Moran, center, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moran of Antioch, receives his degree in dental medicine from acting president Earl Lazerson, left, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and Dr. Henry Cherrick, dean of the School of Dental Medicine. Dr. Moran will begin practice in Richmond, Ill.

Sticker time for 1981

Passenger car owners have been mailed to with license plate registrations expiring in March have until midnight Monday, March 31, to display green, 1981 stickers in the upper left corners of their rear plates.

Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon said that approximately 473,835 pre-printed renewal applications have been mailed to motorists who currently display a red, 1980 sticker expiring in March.

Another way to avoid long lines at the last minute is to purchase a sticker now at the State Bank of Antioch, one of the 471 banks participating in the license renewal program.

Antioch Chamber lends hand to Carpentersville organization committee

When Carpentersville, Ill., organizes a Chamber of Commerce, Antioch can take credit for an assist.

Three representatives of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry traveled to the Fox River Valley community of 24,000 to describe how a Chamber of Commerce operates and the purposes it serves.

Representing Antioch were Peter Clevon, president of First National Bank of Antioch; Dixie Sparks, executive secretary of the Antioch Chamber, and William H. Schroeder, publisher of the Antioch News and Antioch Reporter.

Clevon, a newly elected member of the Chamber board, was the main speaker.

"Everything the Chamber of Commerce does directly or indirectly benefits the community," Clevon declared.

He told the Carpentersville organizing committee that their goal should be to organize programs serving every segment of the community.

"Establish goals that reflect the aims of everyone, not certain individuals," Clevon stressed.

Schroeder, chairman of the 1980 Arts and Crafts Fair, pointed out the importance of an active retail promotion committee. He described how Antioch maintains a retail committee with separate officers, its own treasury "and a great deal of autonomy."

Ms. Sparks outlined internal operations and reported that the Antioch Chamber will be striving for a membership of 200 this year.

Clevon recommended that Carpentersville stress strong support for its prospective Chamber from financial institutions and the local media.

"You judge a community by the involvement in local affairs of the financial institutions and the media," he declared.

Ms. Sparks said Carpentersville business leaders learned of Antioch's successful Chamber and invited a delegation to provide input for their organizational efforts.

BOY RESCUED

Paul Volkman, 12, of Channel Lake, tumbled from his motor bike after hitting an obstacle caused by an ice shift in the center of Grass Lake in early February. Haling's Honkers Snowmobile Club immediately rushed to the scene with safety sled and first aid equipment, reported a club representative. Rescue sled driver Jerry Haling surveyed the situation as club member Jim Bletsch called Antioch Rescue Squad. Young Volkman was brought safely to shore via the rescue sled and taken for treatment of a knee injury.

"We can solve absolutely any problem we want to, if we emphasize the fundamentals. If we stop wringing our hands about the failures of the past and look to the 80's with an idealism that the youth of this country represent to me, with the strength that the older people represent...if we approach the decade of the 80's with a new vision, and a concept that we can do things, the United States can solve anything! And I want to be President because I want to be part of the answer."

George Bush:
A President we won't have to train.

Life-long resident, Scout dies

Life-long Antioch resident, Ray Atwood, died March 8 at St. Claire Hospital where he had been treated for a lengthy illness.

Mr. Atwood was instrumental in organizing Boy Scout troop 86 in Antioch, and spent much of his time working with scouts. Since 1944, he was cub master of Pack 192 in Antioch, and was also the first Eagle Scout of Troop 91 in Antioch. He was awarded the Silver Beaver Award in scouting and was a member of the scouting Order of the Arrow.

Mr. Atwood owned and operated Atwood Floor Covering in Antioch for several years before his death. He was active as secretary-treasurer of the First Fire Protection Agency of Antioch and also served on the Antioch Grade School Board. He served in the Army during the Korean conflict.

Survivors include his wife Mae (nee Setek); a son, Bill, and a daughter, Sandy, both at home; five brothers, Harold of Benton Harbor, Mich.; James of Waukegan; Howard of Beloit, Wis.; Richard of Gurnee; and Thomas of Detroit; and one sister Mrs. George (Mary) Boyd of Antioch.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brother.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch with the Rev. Steve Williams officiating. Interment was at the Hillside Cemetery in Antioch.

Contributions may be made in his behalf to the Antioch Fire Dept. Garland Memorial Fund or the American Cancer Society.

ethnic backgrounds and different walks of life. All expenses are incurred by the individual," she added.

"I have to admit I've learned a great deal about politics through this experience, but I don't know if I'll continue in political efforts after the elections," she said of her first political endeavor.

UNLIKE GERASCH, Sterbenz has been active in the Republican party for many years. She was asked to be a delegate when the committee headed by Adeline Geo-Karis

(R - Zion) was searching for a good cross-section of people to team for Connally.

As for campaigning, Mrs. Sterbenz has attended candidate nights in places such as Elgin and Dundee. "Mrs. Geo-Karis speaks for the team as a whole when we're at these functions, but it is a very exciting experience," she said.

Mrs. Sterbenz is clerk for Antioch and has been so for twelve years. She will be up for re-election in 1981.

Another delegate hopeful from Antioch is Melville C. Knirsch who will be supporting Baker.

Petitions filed at area schools

With little less than two weeks left to file petitions for school board seats at Antioch area schools, administrators report that some petitions have been filed.

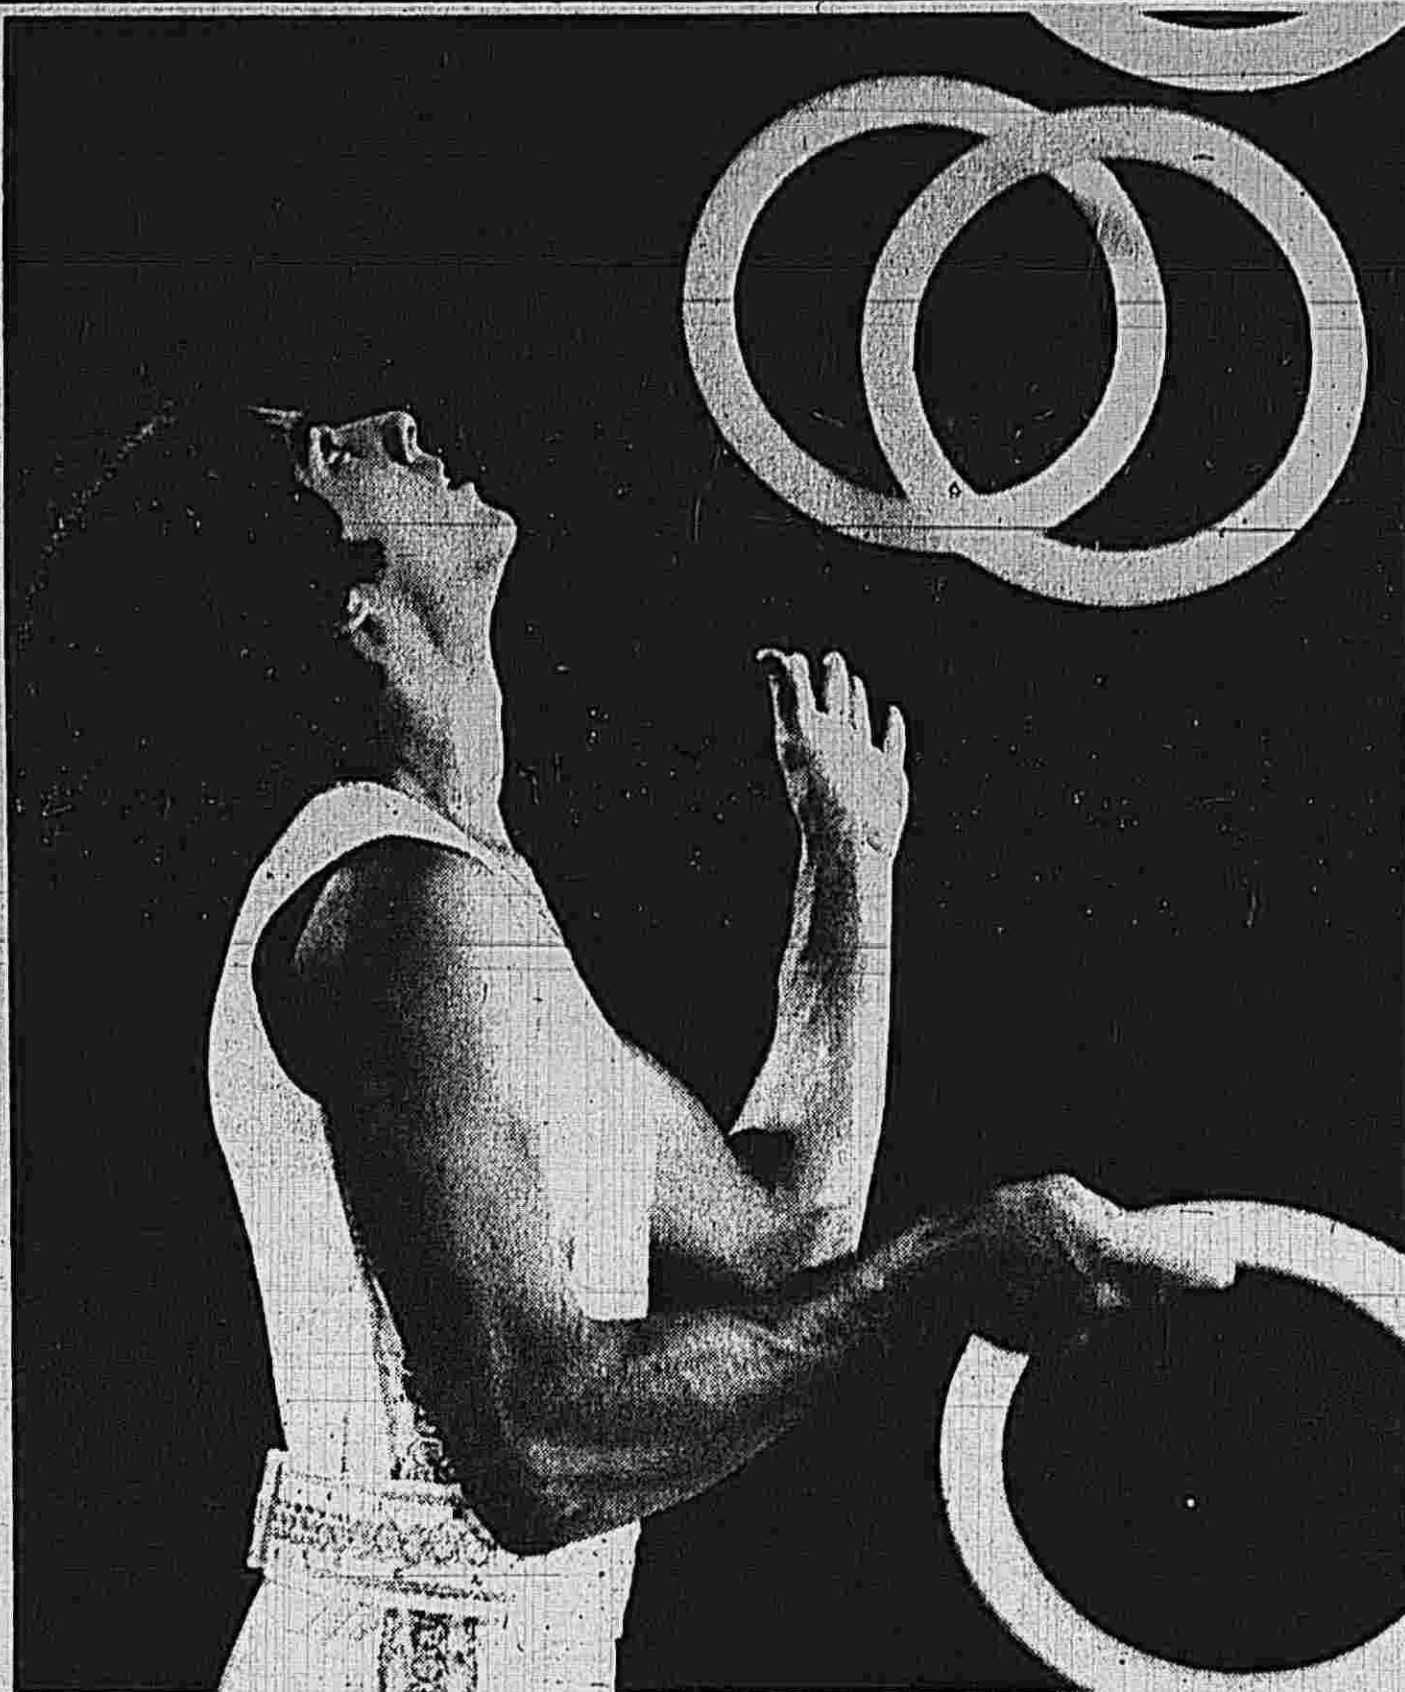

The Antioch High School has reportedly been contacted for six petitions. The superintendent's office reported that incumbents, Bette Meyer, Robert Linblad and Howard Bonner will be seeking re-election.

Antioch Grade School reported that four petitions have been distributed, and that incumbent board members Gail Heath, Bruce Jablonski and Garnet Cook will seek re-election.

Reports from both Emmons and Grass Lake Schools superintendent's offices show that incumbents there will also be seeking their seats back. At Emmons, Ann Kaiser and Carl Fisher will be running, while Sue Schneider has filed to fill a vacant seat on that board.

Five petitions have been distributed by the Grass Lake's superintendent's office, with John Steitz, Marlene Olson and Greg LaPlante seek re-election at that school.

GLOBETROTTERS HALFTIME ENTERTAINER — Steve Mills is one of the talented performers featured in the halftime variety show which accompanies the Globetrotters. As a juggler, he is known for his blinding speed and tremendous dexterity, and his engaging personality captivates audiences everywhere. The world famous Globetrotters are coming to Antioch for one game to be played at Antioch High School at 8 p.m. on April 2. Tickets for this popular event are on sale at the State Bank of Antioch, the First National Bank of Antioch, and the Antioch Savings & Loan Assn. Syrup making on 'tap'

As the forest awakens, the Lake County Forest Preserve District celebrates spring again with the Maple Syrup Program.

The program given at the Edward L. Ryerson Conservation Area takes a unique look at the changes in the forest, appreciation of what trees give us, and of course, real maple syrup making.

The one-hour program, given weekdays for groups and weekends for individuals and families, is available only during March. Reservations may be made by calling 948-7750. Openings are still available especially in the first two weeks of March.

The fee for Lake County residents is 25 cents per person, 50 cents per person for out-of-county residents. Handicapped persons are easily accommodated in the program.

Jazz hoedown ACHS project

Final preparations for the musical variety show, "Country Roads" are being made by the Antioch High School jazz ensemble. This is the sixth year the ensemble has staged a variety show and it promises to be the best yet!

The show is set in the front yard of an old country homestead. As the lights dim, sounds of an old-fashioned country band warming up for a square dance are heard.

The jazz ensemble will open the show with the title tune, "Country Roads." They will also perform a Count Basie number called "Hay Burner", Chuck Mangione's "Land of Make Believe" and "Bellavia." To close the show, the band will perform the tune made famous by the Beatles, "Hey Jude."

There are three dance numbers in this year's show. Nancy Harland, Karen Pape, Gayle Robinson and Kathy Michalsky will dance to Kenny Rogers, "Turn the Light On". Ester Gerritsen, Cheryl Kearney, Patty Durkin and Tracey West will perform to "Ease on Down the Country Road" from the Wiz. The modern dance group will dance to "A Fifth of Beethoven" choreographed by Janet Haisman, a former student from ACHS.

The ACHS swing choir will be represented with John Denver's, "Annie's Song" and "Tomorrow" from the Broadway Show "Annie". Laura Dubek, a member of the swing choir will also perform as a soloist in "What I Did For Love" from the Broadway musical, "A Chorus Line".

Tickets can be obtained from band students or at the door in a limited number. All tickets are payable at the door. $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students. The show starts at 7:30 p.m. in the ACHS Auditorium.

PERFORMERS — Members of the cast of Country Roads '80, the musical variety show sponsored by the Antioch High School Jazz Ensemble, make final preparations for opening night. Show will run for four nights starting at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 14, 15, 21, 22 in the high school auditorium.

CARD PARTY COMING UP — From left Pat Kanabay, Eileen Zannini and Janet Brookman booth in preparation for Antioch Women's Club annual card party to be held March 24. Party will feature dessert and tickets are available for $2 from club members.

Woman's club to 'deal' in fun

The Antioch Women's Club held their regular meeting March 3 at Harbor Ridge Country Club.

The program by Stephen Elrick on lifelike bird sculpture was both educational and entertaining.

Elrick is entirely self-taught, both as an artist and as a naturalist. He began sculpturing as a full-time occupation in 1976, and since then has been creating reproductions of more than 50 different species, most of which he has observed in their natural habitats. All of his works are anatomically correct, and each is a one-of-a-kind original, with carving, baking, painting and mounting techniques unique to his work alone.

Woman's Club members attending the March 3 meeting also had the opportunity to be selected for a personal handwriting evaluation by Nancy S. Smith, Certified Graphoanalyst. Handwriting samples will be submitted to Ms. Smith and evaluation of each sample will be given at the Woman's Club meeting on Monday, March 17.

The program at the upcoming meeting will include the basic ABC's of Handwriting Evaluation, the method of personality profile demonstrated with audience participation, and personality traits shown by handwriting strokes.

Juggler added attraction with Harlem Globetrotters

The world famous Harlem Globetrotters will be in Antioch at 8 p.m., April 2, for one game at the Antioch High School, sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Everybody likes the Harlem Globetrotters, from grade school youngsters to grandfathers. This popularity was graphically demonstrated during the team's 1956 tour of South America when they inadvertently became involved in a revolution that had begun in Lima, Peru, just prior to their arrival there. Street cars had been overturned and burned, and gunfire punctuated the still of the Peruvian night. The Trotters were told that their four-game engagement would have to be canceled. As the Trotters waited nervously in the airport, word spread throughout the city that the team was about to cancel their games because of the revolution. Within hours, the opposing factions got together and agreed to lay down their weapons for a four day truce, allowing the Globetrotters to play. The famed "Ambassadors of Goodwill in Short Pants" had stopped a revolution at least for a little while.

A fantastic halftime

variety show will be an extra added attraction for fans attending this Globetrotter game April 2. It will feature three of the most thrilling variety acts ever to travel with the magicians of basketball. This halftime spectacular will feature the amazing skills of young juggler, Steve Mills, the incredible strength of Walter Wasil, and the delightful bicyclists, the Marchitas. Tickets are available now at the State Bank of Antioch, the First National Bank of Antioch, and the Antioch Savings & Loan Assn. They are $6 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under.

BALANCING ACT — As a member of the world famous Globetrotters who will be in Antioch at 8 p.m. on April 2 for one game at the Antioch High School, Twigg Sanders has that rare combination of outstanding basketball ability and terrific sense of humor. As a college basketball star he earned all-conference honors, but it is his unique sense of humor and comedic flair that sets Sanders apart from the normal player. One look at the Harlem Globetrotter star funnyman will immediately tell you why he is known as "Twigg". He stands 6'8" tall, but weighs in at barely 175 lbs. It comes as a bit of a surprise to learn that the biggest eater on the Globetrotter roster is none other than Sanders. Tickets for this great Globetrotter appearance are on sale now at the State Bank of Antioch, the First National Bank of Antioch, and the Antioch Savings & Loan Assn. They are $6 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under.

Meditation and business TM center's free topic

Jim Polley will be speaking on Meditation and Business Sunday, March 16.

The free seminar will begin at 8 p.m. at the Lake County Transcendental Meditation Center, 12 Park Ave., Grayslake.

Polley will be emphasizing the individual and corporate benefits of the TM program.

According to Polley, "all individuals benefit from the reduction of stress and increased creativity that takes place with the TM technique. But the businessman who is constantly in situations where creativity, clarity and stability are a must, sees the benefits of the TM program most clearly."

Polley, an Antioch resident, has studied with the founder of the TM program, Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. He has studied at Maharishi European Research University (MERU) in Switzerland and at Maharishi International University (MIU) in Fairfield, Iowa.

The seminar will end with a question and answer session. For more information, call 223-8696.

Gibson, Unrein not just 'any old' wrestlers

It's not just any old team, let alone individuals, that get an opportunity to represent their schools in state athletic competition.

Both Jon Gibson and Dave Unrein, Antioch High School varsity wrestlers were tough enough to compete in the Illinois High School Association state wrestling tournament held March 1 at the University of Illinois. Gibson finished second at the state event, while Unrein lost his quarterfinal match. Antioch placed 15th in the overall competition.

Gibson, who had been in state competition previously, finished his career breaking various school and state records. He had 81 pins in 150 wins. He also has the class AA record of three pins in state competition. Unrein ended his career with 40 wins and six losses.

BOTH YOUNG MEN agree that Antioch High offers a good sports program along with a good wrestling program. Unrein is active in football, baseball and cross country in addition to wrestling. "Antioch has good athletic programs," Unrein stated.

Both boys have been active in wrestling since being freshman in high school, while Gibson has been active since grade school.

"I've wrestled since fifth grade and also during the summer," Gibson said. "That helped me stay in shape and keep at it." They have also helped youngsters in the wrestling program during the summer.

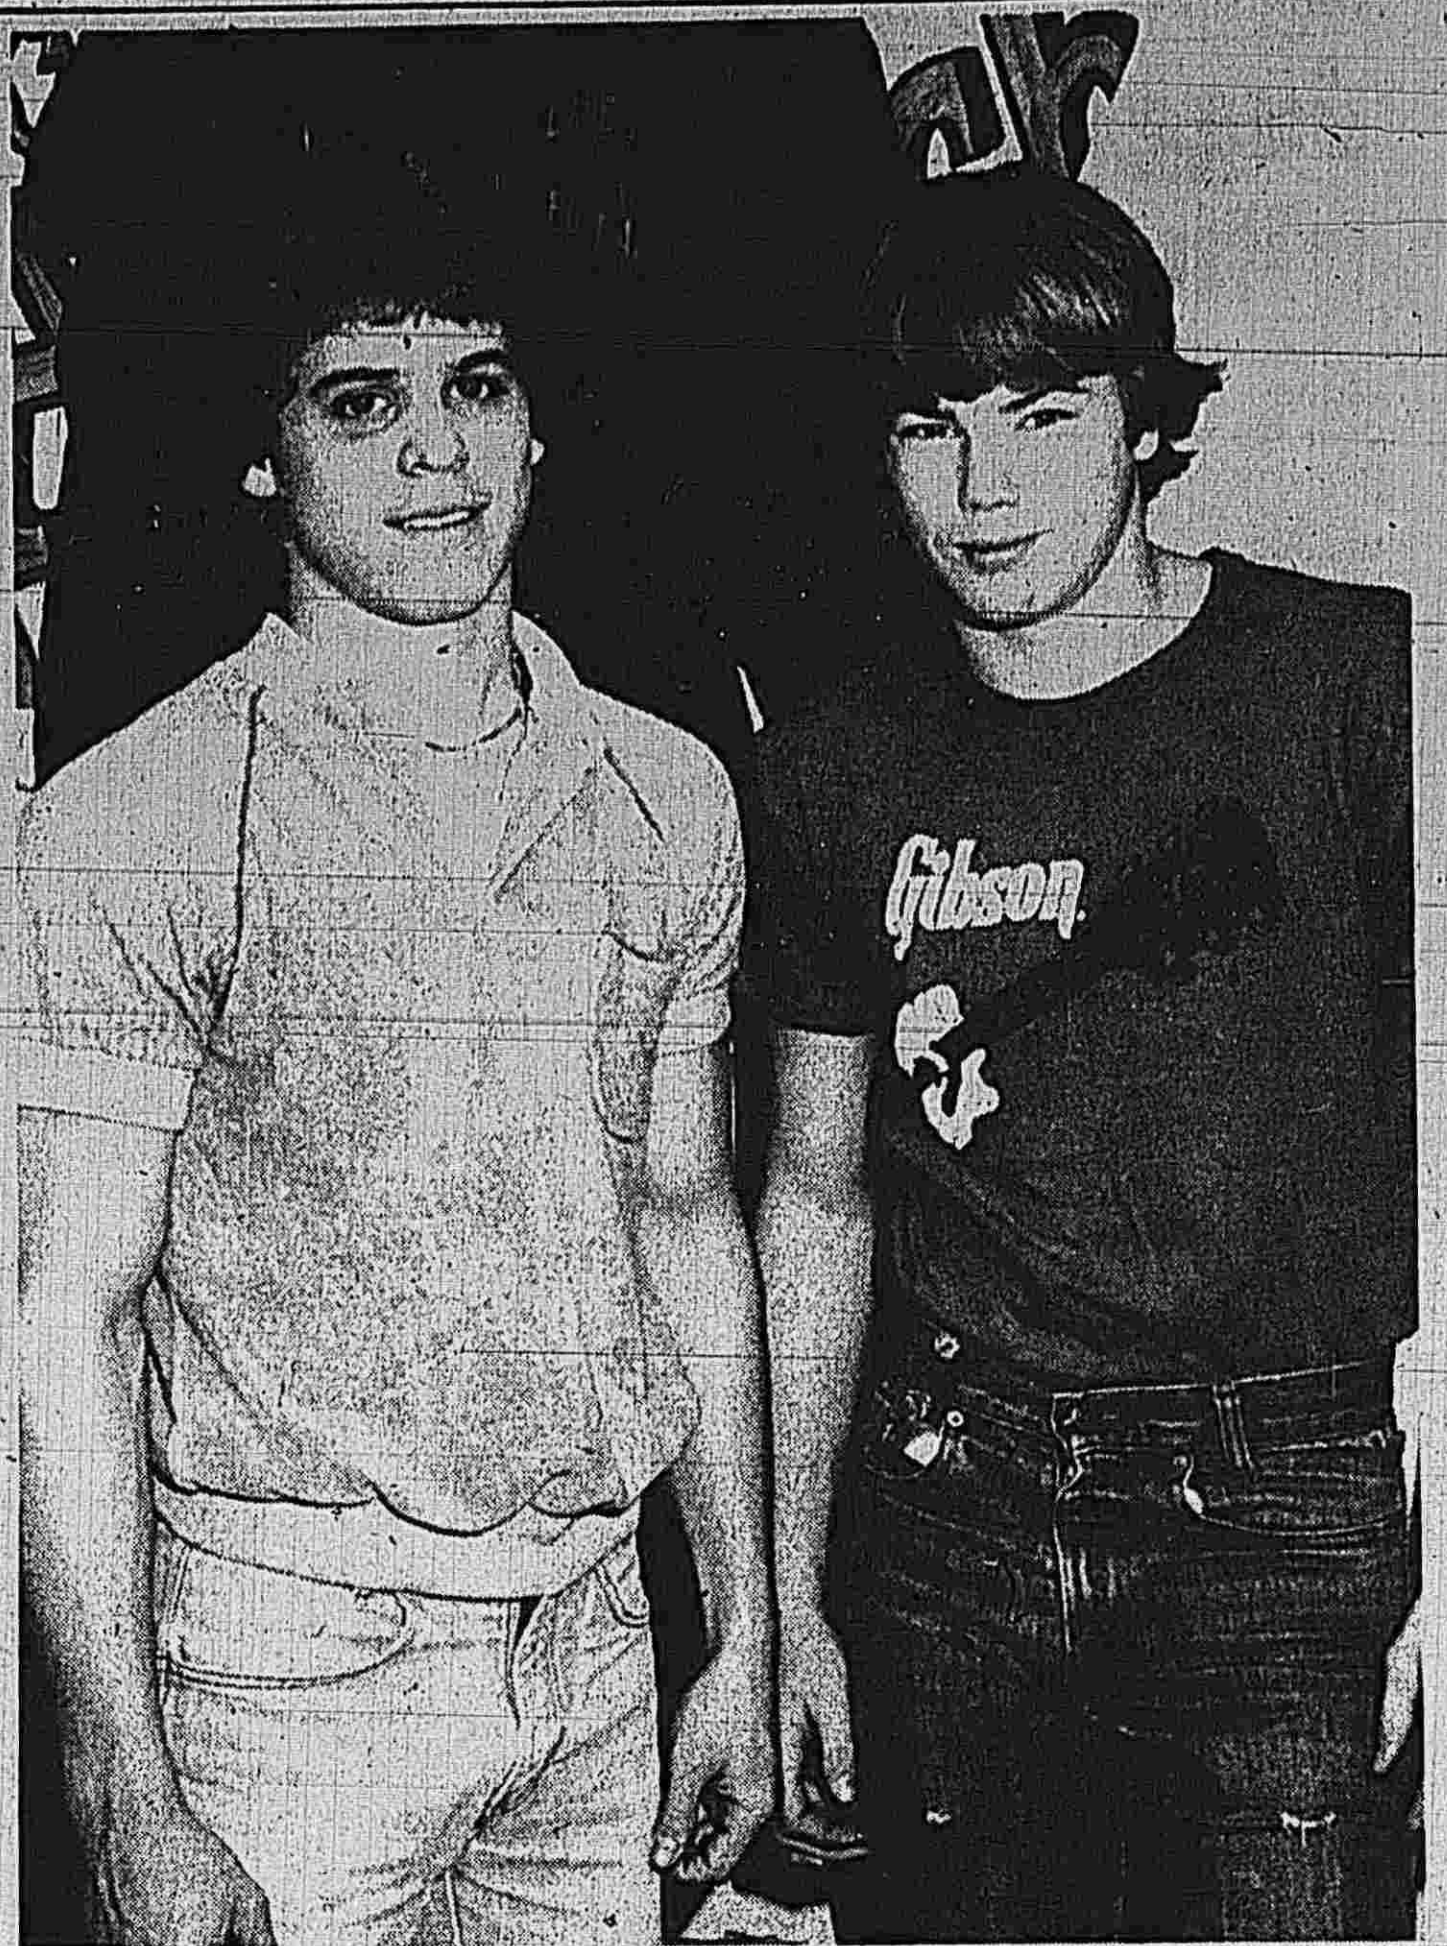

Gibson, who wrestled at 119 pounds, and Unrein who wrestled at 112, both say that head coach Ted Derosse was instrumental in their trek to state competition. "He's a good coach," Gibson said.

Gibson and Unrein will be attending college in the fall and are looking for an academic challenge as well as a wrestling career. "You have to do a good job with grades as well as with wrestling in college," Gibson stated. "College wrestling is different, much more physical," he added.

Gibson has not yet decided where he will attend college although there are many options open. "Which ever school offers me the most of what I want, I will go to," he said.

Unrein is interested in drafting. "I have taken classes in high school in drafting and want to continue in that field," he stated.

Gibson is the son of Larry and Janet Robare of Antioch and Unrein is the son of Darrell and Joy Unrein of Lindenhurst.

Iceless hockey: kids have weekend fun

"Friday night hockey to these people is like Monday night football."

That was a statement made by Frank Walsh concerning one of his favorite pastimes, hockey. It is not a quote concerning the over expanded National Hockey League, however. In fact, it has nothing to do with the professional sport at all.

Friday night hockey in this case has no Zamboni to resurface the playing area, has no rubber pucks and the players do not even wear ice skates.

This hockey is played in area grade school gyms with plastic paraphernalia and gym shoes. Going into the corner for a puck means just that—going into one of the corners of the gym.

THIS IS THE iceless hockey league that Antioch area youngsters in grades one through five can enjoy on weekends during the school year.

Sequoits finish season winners — in their own way

The Grant High School Bulldogs won their fourth regional title at the Antioch High School basketball team's expense on March 7 at Antioch High. The Bulldogs advanced to the final game of the regional tournament by virtue of a win over the Round Lake Panthers on March 5. The Sequoits defeated Grayslake, 79-61, on that same evening.

Grant defeated Antioch 61-48 in a game that saw Antioch shooting 100 percent from the free throw line—the clinker being, the Sequoits only stepped to the line twice in the contest. According to Grant head coach Tom Maple, the Bulldogs have played all season keeping their fouling at hand. "We keep our opposition away from the free throw line, and it makes a difference in the outcome of a lot of the close games," Maple stated.

"WE KNEW THAT Grant was going to be tough, and they were," Sequoits' head coach Roger Andrews said. "They played an excellent game, and we ended up playing catch-up ball, something we're not too good at," he added.

The Sequoits shot 39 percent from the field as did Grant. "Grant's percentage was not that great and neither was their percentage from the line," (17-30 for 57 percent) Andrews said. "Our trips to the foul line, turned out to be the story of the game," Andrews added.

Antioch led through the first quarter of the game, but by the half, the score was 32-24. Although Antioch came within four points in the fourth quarter, they just couldn't turn the game around and never went ahead again. "There were times when it looked like we were settling down and going to get it back, but time was too short," Andrews said.

"They attacked Grant's defense real well in the second half. The boys played a real good game, and they have nothing to be ashamed of," Andrews said.

High scorers in the game were Ronny Nauman with 14 points and Mike Pramshafer with 11. Nauman grabbed 11 rebounds while John Ploss pulled eight off the boards.

The Grayslake-Antioch game on March 5 ended with Grayslake player Greg Troemel being ejected from the game. The Rams' frustration and Antioch's 81 free throw percentage wrapped up the victory for the Sequoits in their first post-season game.

"We shot well in that game," Andrews stated. He also pointed out that Mike Anderson, who replaced injured Pete Weber in the lineup, was the mainstay in setting up plays. "He (Anderson) was our big playmaker," Andrews conceded. ANTIOCH SHOT 55 percent from the field, as opposed to Grayslake's 33, and the Rams were ahead only once in the game.

Senior Kurt Selak was high scorer in the contest with 22 markers, while Ron Nauman and John Ploss both netted 14 and Dee Maras had 13.

Leading in rebounds, which the Sequoits out-did the Rams 35-18, were Nauman with nine and Dee Maras and Ploss with eight.

The Sequoits finish the season with an 11-14 record.

while girls helped with stats and score board changes. According to head basketball coach Roger Andrews, girls also provided spirit by giving players gifts before games, such as a lollipop with a note instructing the players to "lick" their opponents. Andrews also said that three girls would be needed for next year's team. — Photo by Lisa Wilkie.

Dental Health

CHILD'S FIRST DENTAL VISIT

A child going to the dentist for the first time is often a handful of anxieties. Any dentist using the right techniques can transform the most terrified child into a cooperative patient who is no longer afraid — a child who will leave his office with a smile on his face.

The first thing a dentist must do is convince the child of his honesty. Children are smart. They are not easily fooled. If a youngster is promised that a particular thing will be done, the dentist had better be sure he does it.

Usually, the dentist begins with something easy. He says, "Today I am going to count your teeth." And, after that, come what may, he must count the teeth, using whatever means necessary. Remember this: The child often cries before anything is done to him (even a first haircut). He is not hurt, and the dentist has to prove that he can be trusted to do exactly what he says he is going to do — no more, no less. The noise and hysterics generally disappear after the first visit. If the dentist establishes his reliability and that he is trustworthy, there will rarely be any more trouble.

This league, headed by Frank Walsh and other dedicated adults helping with coaching, has been functioning for seven years. The original program was formed by Hank Bessler at Camp Hastings in Lake Villa and started with 60 boys. Today there are 534 boys in the program that play at nine different schools.

There are six teams in grade one, 18 in grades two and three and 18 in fourth and fifth grades. Each team has 12 to 13 players on it.

In October, registration for the program is held. According to Walsh, youngsters in the Lake Villa and Antioch school systems are contacted, and villages cooperate with registration by opening up facilities for the program to use for that purpose. Players can also sign up over the phone, and a fee of $13 is required. This fee pays for insurance, equipment and fees paid to schools for the use of facilities.

COACHES PARTICIPATE in a random draft so that the teams differ each year. "Kids from different schools may end up on the same team, and that way they learn how to deal with different people and meet new friends," stated Walsh.

Another unique feature of the sport is that everybody gets to play. "There are mandatory line changes throughout the first and second periods," Walsh said. The last period is wide-open play, however. "Coaches can substitute freely then and use whomever they think would do the best for them," Walsh added.

The only person that can cross the center line throughout the game is the center. That teaches the youngsters positions, according to Walsh.

The iceless hockey season ends in April, and division playoffs awards the winner with a large trophy. "Each player gets a small trophy and gets to keep his shirt and stick," stated Walsh.

"This is not an ego trip for adults," stated Walsh. "Each coach must referee one period of the game before theirs. That way everyone does their share of the work."

He also added that the biggest benefit from the games is watching improvement in youngsters over the years. "The teams are always different, and the kids can really keep at it and get better over the years," Walsh said.

Anyone involved with the program admits that the youngsters do play with enthusiasm, and the coaches anticipate growth in the program in years to come.

"Basically, it's just a lot of fun," he said.

Hahn declares potential huge

Antioch High School's Freshman basketball team has completed its most successful season in recent years. The team finished with an overall record of 17-4 and won the conference title with a 13-1 record. It was the fourth championship in the last six years for coach Norm Hahn.

The following statistics were provided by Coach Hahn:

Antioch averaged 48.7 points per game, while opponents averaged 39.6. Antioch grabbed 33.7 rebounds per game, opponents 21.8. Rebounding was the outstanding talent of the team. Antioch shot 48 percent from the field and 55 percent from the line. Both percentages are very good for freshmen, according to Hahn.

Individual leaders were: Points: Tom Anderson, 294; Chris Becker, 176; Tim Hortokolis, 154; Derek Olsen, 120; Craig Sheedlo, 110; and Brad Herbst, 108. It's quite an achievement to get six players over one hundred points, according to Hahn.

Per game average: Anderson, 14.0; Becker, 8.8;

Hortokolis, 7.7 and Olsen, Sheedlo and Herbst all a little over 5.

Rebound average: Anderson and Becker, 173; and Hortokolis, 138;

Rebound average: Becker, 8.7; Anderson, 8.2; Hortokolis, 6.9;

Assists: Herbst, 56; and Olsen, 52;

Field goal shooting percentage: Hortokolis, 62; Becker, 59; Anderson, 50 and Herbst, 48.

Free throw shooting percentage: Olsen and Herbst, 65; Anderson, 63; Hortokolis, 62.

Coach Hahn summarized the season as "super." "In November I didn't think we would do as well as we did," he commented. "The guys worked very hard and developed rapidly. We shot real well, but the rebounding was the main factor. By controlling the boards we got many second shots but limited opponents to one."

Coach Hahn also predicted continued success for the team. "If the guys stay interested and will work at it, they can be as good as they would like to be. Their potential is enormous."

Ganis named new service president

The chaplaincy service is a not-for-profit, inter-denominational organization that seeks to provide professional pastoral care services to Lake County institutions. Nearly 600 volunteers are involved in programs seeking the welfare of human beings in the Lake County Jail, the Waukegan Development Center, a Meals-With-Wheels program, the Chain-of-Lakes Senior Services.

The Lake County campaign of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, senatorial aspirant, officially opens in Antioch Friday when a luncheon will be served in her honor by the Ladies' Guild society at the Episcopal Guild Hall at 12 o'clock.

Within the next month or two, the new five-cent air mail stamps, which were recently issued at the post office department in Washington, will make their initial appearance in Antioch, according to Miss Lottie Jones, local postmaster.

Failure on the part of Miss Olga Steig of the security division of the railway commission, to investigate the financing plan of the Chain-O-Lakes Laundry and Dry Cleaning Company, resulted in difficulty for G.E. Orr, E.V. Miller and C.B. Washburn, who were accused of selling stock without a permit in Wisconsin. However, no stock in the proposed Chain-O-Lakes Laundry has been sold in Wisconsin or anywhere else. Wisconsin legal counsel have declared the charge will not stand.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Pitman returned Friday after having been away from this community since October. Mr. Pitman bought a farm on San Juan Island in Puget Sound, Washington. They expect to make their future home on the island.

CITY BRIEFS . . . Mr. and Mrs. George Bosomberg, Chicago, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. D.A. Williams. Mr. Bosomberg, an attorney in the Windy City, has an interesting ancestry. His great grandfather, who was born in Bavaria, was taken with 5,000 Germans under King Otto's directorship to Greece shortly after that country had been freed from the Turks. He had been educated in Munich as a military man, and was taken to Greece to organize and teach schools. Mr. Bosomberg himself was born in Constantinople and spent his early life there.

C.B. Dicks, Lake Villa village board head, denies charges that Lake Villa is a speed trap. "Lake Villa has not employed a traffic policeman for three years," he stated.

30 YEARS AGO: MARCH 9, 1950

The three men who robbed the First National Bank of Antioch shortly before 2 o'clock Friday afternoon parked their car in front of the Antioch Theatre. One robber, carrying a shotgun, walked in the street, while his redheaded companion walked along the sidewalk. They escaped with $5,183 in a 1950 model Ford. During the robbery Bruno Schubauer, a customer at the bank who is hard of hearing, failed to understand a command and was struck in the face with the stock of the gun, inflicting a severe wound.

Roberts Interior Decorators of Chicago, have arranged to handle local business through an agent placed in Antioch. A display will be set up at the Ford garage where orders will be taken for slipcovers, drapery and upholstery.

A "gay nineties" costume carnival will be held on St. Patrick's Day at the high school gymnasium. Included in the entertainment will be a pie-eating contest, variety musical, fortune-telling tent and taffy apple and popcorn stand. Four boys and girls have been nominated as candidates for king and queen and prizes for the best costume will be awarded.

10 YEARS AGO: MARCH 12, 1970

Winners in the Antioch News subscription drive held recently by the Antioch High School Band were, Betty Valentine, first prize, Donna Crichton, second prize, Carla Bartlett, third prize and Candy Nelson, fourth prize.

A huge crowd turned out for the second annual V.I.P. Dinner Dance this year honoring Dr. W.C. Petty. One had to look twice on entering the lower level of Lorenz's Smart Country House to make sure that they were in the right place. The banquet hall looked more like a classroom than a classroom does, Dr. Petty received many fine words and awards from special guests. His son, Frank Petty, came all the way from California for the affair.

An Antioch man was sentenced to 30 days in jail for failing to file a 1963 income tax return when his gross income was at least $31,700.

Allendale hears band

The Grayslake High School band performed its first visiting concert of the year at Allendale School. Under the direction of Newell Kessinger, the 60 members played a variety of selections including show tunes and patriotic music.

Bill Steans of Allendale's Special Education of Lake County staff organized the idea. He coordinated it with Pam Buchanan, principal at Allendale, and Wayne Parthun, public affairs director at the school.

The entire campus was in attendance, including teachers, child care staff, support service staff, students and Director Robert Holway.

The visit from the Grayslake band is the first of several planned visits to the Allendale campus by area high school musical groups. It is part of Allendale's continuing effort to provide its residents with a cultural experience equal to that received by the average student their age.

The Antioch Fire Safety Building was dedicated before a huge crowd Sunday, March 9. Everyone from political candidates to village officials, to fire and rescue squad members and families to village residents were on hand at the warm event.

Program included remarks from Mayor Michael Haley, Russell Lasco, president of the first fire protection district, Dave Heath, chief of the rescue squad, Tod Maplethorpe, fire chief, and the "greatest emcee in the world", Dr. W.C. Petty.

The Rev. Steve Williams and Fr. Francis Johnson were on hand to add a touch of spiritualism, while candidates for political office were also on hand.

Edgar Simonsen was present and was gracious in accepting the building as being dedicated for his service to the department.

Refreshments were prepared by department wives, and both children and adults enjoyed seeing the facility.

KEEP
Congressman
BOB McCLORY

Your Voice in Washington

CONGRESSMAN McCLORY deserves re-election for the following three reasons:

EXPERIENCE Congressman McClory's 17 years in Congress have given him a position of seniority which he is able to use for the benefit of all 13th District residents.

LEADERSHIP Congressman McClory was fighting to cut taxes and limit federal spending long before the issue became popular. He is the leading sponsor of the Balanced Budget Amendment to the Constitution.

SERVICE Congressman McClory devotes a large part of his time and staff resources to personal service to individuals and communities in the District. An example is his intervention on behalf of 13th District communities in their dispute with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency over barium levels in area drinking water.

EXPERIENCE, LEADERSHIP, and SERVICE are three good reasons for returning BOB McCLORY TO CONGRESS. Punch #11 in Lake County, #18 in Kane County, or #23 in McHenry County.
